PHILADELPHIA – Pets large and small enjoy the good life at The Residences at Two Liberty Place, with a full array of luxury services provided exclusively by PhilaPets.com in the tower's dedicated Pet Spa.

Happy pet owner Christian Yergler chose The Residences at Two Liberty Place from her move from Illinois precisely because of these pet-friendly policies and luxury amenities.

Her pets include 3-year-old, five-pound, floppy-eared, short-haired chihuahua, Isabella, and 3-year-old 12-pound beagle, Brooklyn. From the comfort of their home on the 41st floor overlooking the breathtaking Philadelphia skyline, Isabella enjoys getting a fresh coat of fuchsia applied to her nails, matching the boa around her neck. Next to her, Brooklyn breathes a sigh of relief as the masseuse rubs her cares away after an exhilarating one hour run with her favorite dog runner.

"I am so happy that Isabella and Brooklyn can enjoy their new home as much as I do. It is wonderful to have such an extensive list of pet services available right here in my own home, especially since I work and am frequently out of town. The peace of mind, convenience and time saved by having PhilaPets.com available whenever I need them is a particular service that I enjoy here at Two Liberty Place," says Christian.

Residents can choose to book pet spa services right in the comfort of their own home or at the Pet Spa, located on the 37th floor in the 12,000 square foot Owners Club. Rain or shine, the Pet Spa is a cozy luxury space for play-dates, outfitted with comfy doggy beds, delicious natural snacks, toys and the latest dog fashions from Chic Petique.

"Pets are a part of the family. No other luxury residence in Philadelphia is as pet-friendly as The Residences at Two Liberty Place," says Albo J. Antenucci, Jr., managing partner and executive vice president of the Falcone Group. "The Pet Spa ensures that everyone living at The Residences at Two Liberty Place enjoys luxurious gym, spa and concierge amenities, including our four-legged friends."

"PhilaPets is delighted to provide the luxury pet spa services at The Residences at Two Liberty Place. Ensuring our clients enjoy everything that Center City Philadelphia has to offer is part of the residential experience at Two Liberty and a labor of love for us," says Deirdre Weissman, president of PhilaPets.com, winner of the 2008 Philadelphia Magazine "Best of Philly" Award. PhilaPets.com services include dog walking and running, pet sitting, overnight care, and arranging grooming, massage and therapeutic services exclusively for Two Liberty pets through its preferred affiliates.

Two Liberty Place (along with its sibling, One Liberty Place) is the signature landmark of Philadelphia's skyline. The iconic tower, designed by world-renowned architect Helmut Jahn and re-developed by the Falcone Group, consists of 90 spacious luxury residences that begin on the 40th floor and soar to the penthouse on the 57th floor. These homes, ranging from 1,150 square-foot one bedroom plus dens to a 12,000 square-foot mansion-in-the-sky, feature expansive layouts and wall-to-wall windows providing residents with unobstructed, sweeping views of Philadelphia, as well as New Jersey and Delaware.

In addition to offering the highest level of materials, finishes and features within its residences, Two Liberty Place also provides a comprehensive complement of services and amenities for resort-style, private club living in the clouds. The Owners Club on the 37th floor will even include a signature restaurant -- the highest in the region -- which will offer owners preferred seating, as well as catered room service. But what most distinguishes The Residences at Two Liberty Place is the introduction to Philadelphia of a true 5-star white glove concierge service, normally reserved to the upper echelon of the hospitality industry.
